SECTION ONE - OBJECTIVE

In any municipal issues there will be costs and benefits. In the case of Alpha, the impact on the people who relocated is one area which has received little attention when clearance areas were considered. Since the residents of the area will be the ones most affected by clearance it is desirable to weigh the impact on these people along with other factors related to clearance.

This report is intended to throw light on the impact on the people relocating from clearance areas. It will conclude whether relocation was beneficial or detrimental to the people directly involved.

SECTION TWO - INTRODUCTION

The Alpha neighbourhood is a residential enclave situated in the heart of a heavy industrial area. The location of Alpha is shown on Map 1.

The area is zoned "K" (heavy industrial), therefore, the houses were legal non-conforming uses since they were built before the zoning was passed in 1951.

This study focusses upon the north/east section of the Alpha Enclave. This area is located at the northern limits of Sherman Avenue at Burlington Street. It is surrounded by heavy industrial uses such as International Harvester, Stanley Steel and Canada Liquid Air. This area is shown on Map 2.

A review of all the residential enclaves was carried out in 1977. This report concluded that the Alpha area was unsuitable for residential use and should be cleared for industrial land.

There were two factors supporting clearance. Firstly, the clearance would solve some glaring social problems such as severe pollution and lack of services and secondly the clearance would help satisfy the demand for industrial land in North Hamilton.

The Alpha Enclave had some of the worst living conditions compared to the other enclaves, 75% of the people wanted to leave the area and 51% of the homes were in poor condition.¹

In 1981 council endorsed the proposal of clearing the north east section of the Alpha Enclave and included this project in the 81-83 budget. Between October 1981 and July 1983 all the homes in this area were purchased and the land was cleared at a total cost of 1.28 million dollars.

Authority for these acquisitions was given by sections 21(1) and 35(6) of the Planning Act which are outlined in Appendix 2. These sections basically state that council may acquire any land or structure which does not comply to the zoning by-laws or the Official Plan.

1. Alpha Area - A Profile

SECTION THREE - METHODOLOGY

A questionnaire was developed to ascertain how the residents of the north east section of the Alpha enclave were affected by relocation. It compares their lives before and after relocation. The questionnaire also gets the people to express their feelings regarding the relocation process.

An attempt was made to contact all of the former residents of the study area. Those who were located were then asked if they would participate in a personal interview regarding their move from the Alpha area. Most of these people agreed to an interview in their homes, or by telephone. For two of the contacted residents neither of these methods were convenient so the questionnaires were mailed out to them.

The reason for wanting personal interviews was that the exchange is more open and informative. In addition the interviewer could see the person's new home and surroundings and get a better understanding of their new life styles.

This particular study was completed using one researcher. This fact ensured that there was continuity between all of the interviews.

STUDY RESULTS

Participants in the Study

Out of the 60 properties that were purchased, 58 properties had houses on them. Of these houses 38 were occupied. Therefore the total number of potential households to interview is 38. The following were received.

COMMENTS:

This represents an average of 1.68 children per household. The average number of children per household in Hamilton is 1.2.

3. DID YOU FIND IT EASY OR DIFFICULT TO FIND A ALTERNATIVE ACCOMMODATION WHEN MOVING FROM THE APLHA NEIGHBOURHOOD?

Responses

A - Easy	10	53
B - Moderate	3	16
C - Difficult	5	26
D - No Answer	1	5

COMMENTS:

Over half of the respondents found it easy to find alternative accommodation when they relocated from the Alpha area. However, a high percentage of people experienced some sort of difficulty when relocating.

4. HOW MANY TIMES HAVE YOU MOVED SINCE YOU LEFT THE ALPHA NEIGHBOURHOOD?

None	18	95
Once	1	5

COMMENTS:

Almost all the respondents have stayed in the house or apartment that they originally relocated to.

This would show that the people were satisfied with their new accommodation.

4a. IF YOU HAVE MOVED SINCE YOU LEFT THE ALPHA NEIGHBOURHOOD PLEASE INDICATE THE REASON(S) FOR THIS MOVE:

- i poor or unsuitable housing in the area you relocated to;
- ii the area was unsuitable to you; or,
- iii other - please specify.

Responses

One resident first moved in with their parents and then moved into an apartment.

COMMENTS:

This question asks the people to make comparisons between various aspects of the Alpha and the new neighbourhood. It is split into the positive and negative aspects of the neighbourhoods.

The positive section consists of 8 questions which ask the people which aspects of the neighbourhoods they liked better. In 5 of these the majority of people liked their new neighbourhood better, in two the people liked Alpha better and in one the people were equally divided.

The negative section consists of 4 questions which ask the people which aspects of the neighbourhoods they disliked most. In all of these the people found the Alpha area to have the worst living conditions with regards to living space and pollution.

6. OVERALL, AFTER RELOCATION, DO YOU FEEL YOU ARE:

	#	%
a) Better off	15	79
b) Worse off	2	11
c) The same	2	11

COMMENTS:

Approximately 80% of the respondents feel that they are better off in their new neighbourhoods than they were in the Alpha neighbourhoods. Only two of the respondents feel that they are worse off than they were in Alpha.

The purpose of the acquisitions was to improve the lives of the residents of Alpha. Looking at the statistics, the majority of the people are better off. However, it is hard to make ethical judgements that would conclude that in improving the lives of 15 people 2 people's lives be lessened. However, in this case one of these 2 persons suffered extreme hardships prior to the relocation and never fully recovered. He blames expropriations for his situation. The other individual mailed in his questionnaire and the exact reasons for him saying he is worse off are unknown.

Judging by the respondents attitudes after relocation it can be concluded that it overall was successful at improving their lives.

7. IS THE HEAD OF THE HOUSEHOLD EMPLOYED?

Yes	10	53
No	9	47

COMMENTS:

By looking at the percentages it would seem that a large portion of the respondents are unemployed. This is misleading since many of the people are retired. This problem was realized during the interviews so the people were asked if they were retired. Thus the breakdown is as follows:

Employed	10	53
Unemployed	2	10
Retired	7	37

COMMENTS:

The total number of people available for work is 12, 83% of these are employed. This is above the city of Hamilton's average unemployment rate.

8. DOES YOUR SPOUSE WORK (ASSUMING EVERY RESPONDENT HAS A SPOUSE)?

Yes	1	5
No	18	95

8a. WAS YOUR SPOUSE FORCED TO SEEK EMPLOYMENT AS A RESULT OF FINANCIAL PRESSURES CAUSED BY RELOCATION (ASSUMING EVERY RESPONDENT HAS A SPOUSE)?

Yes	0	0
No	19	100

COMMENTS:

Relocation did not create financial pressures that forced the spouses to seek employment.

9. HAS YOUR PLACE OF EMPLOYMENT CHANGED BECAUSE OF YOUR MOVE FROM THE ALPHA NEIGHBOURHOOD? (IF APPLICABLE)

Yes	0	0
No	19	100

9a. IF IT HAS CHANGED HAS IT BEEN:

Negative	0	0

COMMENTS:

Moving from Alpha did not force anyone to change jobs.

10. DO YOU PRESENTLY OWN OR DO YOU RENT YOUR ACCOMMODATION?

Own	12	63
Rent	7	37

COMMENTS:

The average for Hamilton occupied private dwellings is 57% owned and 43% rented.

11. IF YOU OWNED YOUR HOUSE IN ALPHA WERE YOU FORCED TO RENT YOUR ACCOMMODATION WHEN YOU MOVED?

Yes	3	17
No	15	83

11a. IF YOU OWNED YOUR HOUSE IN ALPHA AND RENT YOUR ACCOMODATION NOW WERE YOU FORCED TO DO SO?

Yes	3	50
No	3	50

COMMENTS:

Three respondents were forced to give up their houses and were not able to buy a new house. The other respondents were able to buy a new house or rent their accommodation.

12. DO YOU FEEL YOUR PRESENT MORTGAGE/RENT IS REASONABLE IN VIEW OF YOUR CURRENT FINANCIAL SITUATION?

Yes	14	74
No	2	11
No Answer	3	15

COMMENTS:

The respondents felt that the Alpha homes were more affordable but their new homes were of better quality. However, this is not necessarily a satisfactory trade off for rents beyond their means, since it inevitably means a compression of other expenditures from their limited budgets.²

This question was set up to learn if the people were spending too much on accommodation. Since only two respondents feel that their rent is too high, it can be concluded that the people now have better accommodation without living beyond their means.

13. WERE YOU SATISFIED WITH THE AMOUNT OF MONEY YOU RECEIVED FROM THE CITY?

Yes	6	32
No	13	68

COMMENTS:

A majority of respondents were not satisfied with the amount of money the City paid them for their houses.

14. GIVEN YOUR EXPERIENCE, DO YOU THINK THE CITY WAS JUSTIFIED IN BUYING UP THE HOUSES IN THE ALPHA AREA?

Yes	15	79
No	4	21

COMMENTS:

Most of the respondents feel the City was justified in purchasing the houses in Alpha. Some people stipulated that the City would have been justified if more money was given for the houses.

2. The Effects of Forced Relocation in Montreal

15. IN THE FUTURE, SHOULD THE CITY BUY UP OTHER HOUSES IN SIMILIAR SITUATIONS?

Yes	15	79
No	2	10.5
No Answer	2	10.5

COMMENTS:

This question as well as the previous one asks the people who were directly involved in the enclave clearance program whether the clearance of the enclave is a good idea. The response is positive to both of these questions. This would indicate that the clearance program was successful in the case of Alpha.

RELOCATION OF RESIDENTS

The average distance of the moves from Alpha was 2.7 km. (This does not include the two people who moved outside of Hamilton) The pattern of relocation is shown on Map 9. Only 2 of the respondents still live within the heavy industrial boundary as outlined on Map 4. This information was aquired through the questionnaire.

SECTION FIVE - SUMMARY

- o Majority of the people are happier now than when they were living in Alpha.
- o Most respondents were not satisfied with the amount of money they received for their homes.
- o The clearance program of the Alpha area was looked upon favourably by the respondents.
- o The respondents felt the clearance program should continue in other enclaves.
- o Many people are concerned that the land is still mostly vacant. They felt the City should have had a definite plan for this land before they bought it. However, under the Municipal Act the city is not supposed to have one particular purchaser in mind.

SECTION SIX - OVERALL CONCLUSION

- i. Residents of the Alpha Area were not adversely affected.
- ii. Relocation was beneficial to the residents of the Alpha Area.

However it should be noted that half the potential interviewees were not traced.

CHRONOLOGY

1977	The Planning and Development Committee approved the principle of clearing some of the Residential Enclaves.
October 1979	The demand for industrial land in the North End Report concluded that the industries required more land but were not willing to pay the high prices of buying and clearing homes in the enclaves. It recommended that the government should buy and clear housing and sell it for industry.
January 1981	Council enclosed the program of clearing the northern part of the Alpha enclave for inclusion in the 81-83 budget.
July 1981	Put money received from selling part of McAnulty enclave to Dofasco in a reserve fund to be known as the Reserve for Aquisition of Lands in the Alpha Enclave Account number 0280-35. The land that was sold was 5.3 acres for 1.28 million dollars.
September 1981	Twenty-six home owners in the N/E section of Alpha signed a petition asking the City to buy their houses. They stated that the houses were unmarketable and the City had a moral obligation to buy them.
October 1981	In item #9 of the Planning and Development Department Report # 24, City Council authorized the Real Estate Department to aquire 60 properties in the N/E section of Alpha.
June 1982	Forty-eight properties were aquired, however, 12 owners were not willing to negotiate outside of expropriation.

June	1982	Council approved the City of Hamilton as having expropriating authority under sections 21(1) and 35(6) of the Planning Act.
January	1983	Bylaw 83-34 authorized expropriation of six residences in the Alpha Enclave.
July	1983	All sixty properties aquired at a cost of $1,281,442.
Present		The city has sold 1.14 acres of the aquired land for $213,000,. The rest of the land is vacant.
